1. R&D Associates (RDA), 4640 Admiralty Way, Marina del Rey, California 90291 has been tasked under contract DNA 001-81-C-0024 to research problems related to nuclear weapons technologies and strategies of use.
2. As part of this effort, RDA will assess the strategic issues arising from a significant expansion of defense capability in a national emergency and develop alternative national strategies, given expanded force postures, the requirements of defense production that they would impose, and demands for allies and other military aid. Specifically, the contractor will research and prepare reports on the role of nuclear weapons in the changed circumstances of the eighties, including problems associated with the spread of nuclear weapons.
3. In support of this effort, request RDA be given access to the following caveated document:

NI-IIM-79-10028. The 22 September 1979 Event.
4. Request release authority and one (1) copy of the document be forwarded to the following address:

Director
Defense Nuclear Agency
ATTN: AO-24
Washington, D.C. 20305
5. Cited contract is effective through 31 December 1981.
